ORDER OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

Respondent was provided written notification of the time, date and location of Respondent's REVIEW OF REASONABLE FEAR HEARING.

Despite the written notification provided, Respondent failed to appear at the hearing, and no exceptional circumstances were shown for the failure to appear.

The immigration court finds that Respondent's failure to appear constitutes an abandonment of any pending applications for relief or protection from removal and any applications the respondent may have been eligible to file. Those applications are deemed abandoned and denied for lack of prosecution.

ORDER OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

Respondent was provided written notification of the time, date and location of Respondent's removal hearing. Respondent was also provided a written warning that failure to appear at the hearing, except for exceptional circumstances as defined in Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) § 240(e)(1), may result in the hearing being held in Respondent's absence under INA § 240(b)(5) and an order of removal being entered if the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) establishes by clear, unequivocal and convincing evidence that Respondent or Respondent's representative has been provided this notice and that Respondent is removable.

Despite the written notification provided, Respondent failed to appear at the hearing, and no exceptional circumstances were shown for the failure to appear. Therefore, the immigration court conducted the hearing in absentia. At the hearing, the immigration court determined that:

- At a prior hearing, Respondent admitted the factual allegations in the Notice to Appear and conceded removability. The immigration court finds removability established as charged.
- The DHS submitted documentary evidence relating to Respondent that established the truth of the factual allegations contained in the Notice to Appear. The immigration court finds removability established as charged.

The immigration court further finds that Respondent's failure to appear constitutes an abandonment of any pending applications for relief or protection from removal and any applications the respondent may have been eligible to file. Those applications are deemed abandoned and denied for lack of prosecution.

ORDER: Respondent shall be removed to Ecuador, or in the alternative to on the charge(s) contained in the Notice to Appear.

ORDER OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

Respondent was provided written notification of the time, date and location of Respondent's removal hearing. Respondent was also provided a written warning that failure to appear at the hearing, except for exceptional circumstances as defined in Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) § 240(e)(1), may result in the hearing being held in Respondent's absence under INA § 240(b)(5) and an order of removal being entered if the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) establishes by clear, unequivocal and convincing evidence that Respondent or Respondent's representative has been provided this notice and that Respondent is removable.

Despite the written notification provided, Respondent failed to appear at the hearing, and no exceptional circumstances were shown for the failure to appear. Therefore, the immigration court conducted the hearing in absentia. At the hearing, the immigration court determined that:

- At a prior hearing, Respondent admitted the factual allegations in the Notice to Appear and conceded removability. The immigration court finds removability established as charged.
- The DHS submitted documentary evidence relating to Respondent that established the truth of the factual allegations contained in the Notice to Appear. The immigration court finds removability established as charged.

The immigration court further finds that Respondent's failure to appear constitutes an abandonment of any pending applications for relief or protection from removal and any applications the respondent may have been eligible to file. Those applications are deemed abandoned and denied for lack of prosecution.

ORDER: Respondent shall be removed to Guatemala, or in the alternative to on the charge(s) contained in the Notice to Appear.

ORDER OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

Respondent was provided written notification of the time, date and location of Respondent's removal hearing. Respondent was also provided a written warning that failure to appear at the hearing, except for exceptional circumstances as defined in Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) § 240(e)(1), may result in the hearing being held in Respondent's absence under INA § 240(b)(5) and an order of removal being entered if the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) establishes by clear, unequivocal and convincing evidence that Respondent or Respondent's representative has been provided this notice and that Respondent is removable.

Despite the written notification provided, Respondent failed to appear at the hearing, and no exceptional circumstances were shown for the failure to appear. Therefore, the immigration court conducted the hearing in absentia. At the hearing, the immigration court determined that:

- At a prior hearing, Respondent admitted the factual allegations in the Notice to Appear and conceded removability. The immigration court finds removability established as charged.
- The DHS submitted documentary evidence relating to Respondent that established the truth of the factual allegations contained in the Notice to Appear. The immigration court finds removability established as charged.

The immigration court further finds that Respondent's failure to appear constitutes an abandonment of any pending applications for relief or protection from removal and any applications the respondent may have been eligible to file. Those applications are deemed abandoned and denied for lack of prosecution.

ORDER: Respondent shall be removed to El Salvador, or in the alternative to on the charge(s) contained in the Notice to Appear.

ORDER OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

Respondent was provided written notification of the time, date and location of Respondent's removal hearing. Respondent was also provided a written warning that failure to appear at the hearing, except for exceptional circumstances as defined in Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) § 240(e)(1), may result in the hearing being held in Respondent's absence under INA § 240(b)(5) and an order of removal being entered if the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) establishes by clear, unequivocal and convincing evidence that Respondent or Respondent's representative has been provided this notice and that Respondent is removable.

Despite the written notification provided, Respondent failed to appear at the hearing, and no exceptional circumstances were shown for the failure to appear. Therefore, the immigration court conducted the hearing in absentia. At the hearing, the immigration court determined that:

- At a prior hearing, Respondent admitted the factual allegations in the Notice to Appear and conceded removability. The immigration court finds removability established as charged.
- The DHS submitted documentary evidence relating to Respondent that established the truth of the factual allegations contained in the Notice to Appear. The immigration court finds removability established as charged.

The immigration court further finds that Respondent's failure to appear constitutes an abandonment of any pending applications for relief or protection from removal and any applications the respondent may have been eligible to file. Those applications are deemed abandoned and denied for lack of prosecution.

ORDER OF THE IMMIGRATION JUDGE

Respondent was provided written notification of the time, date and location of Respondent's removal hearing. Respondent was also provided a written warning that failure to appear at the hearing, except for exceptional circumstances as defined in Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) § 240(e)(1), may result in the hearing being held in Respondent's absence under INA § 240(b)(5) and an order of removal being entered if the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) establishes by clear, unequivocal and convincing evidence that Respondent or Respondent's representative has been provided this notice and that Respondent is removable.

Despite the written notification provided, Respondent failed to appear at the hearing, and no exceptional circumstances were shown for the failure to appear. Therefore, the immigration court conducted the hearing in absentia. At the hearing, the immigration court determined that:

- At a prior hearing, Respondent admitted the factual allegations in the Notice to Appear and conceded removability. The immigration court finds removability established as charged.
- The DHS submitted documentary evidence relating to Respondent that established the truth of the factual allegations contained in the Notice to Appear. The immigration court finds removability established as charged.

The immigration court further finds that Respondent's failure to appear constitutes an abandonment of any pending applications for relief or protection from removal and any applications the respondent may have been eligible to file. Those applications are deemed abandoned and denied for lack of prosecution.

ORDER: Respondent shall be removed to Ecuador, or in the alternative to on the charge(s) contained in the Notice to Appear.
